RE: Case No. 7:16-cv-24-FL; Loney v. Parker, et al

Dear Ms. Loney:

On June 10, 2016, the court entered an order by a text-only docket entry in your case. This order states as follows:

TEXT ORDER - This matter comes now before the court upon the clerk's notice of plaintiff's failure to respond most recently to the clerk's 5/9/2016 missive requiring submission with 14 days of completed proposed summonses. Of its own initiative, the court extends the deadline up to and until 6/27/2016. If plaintiff again fails to respond, the clerk is directed to dismiss the action and close the file for failure to prosecute. Signed by District Judge Louise Wood Flanagan on 6/10/2016.

A copy of the notice of electronic filing of the text order is included with this letter. The court did not write the order on a separate document. This entry is the order of the court. As explained in Section M(2) of the Eastern District of North Carolina's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing Policy Manual, the text-only entry is the court's only order on the matter, and a docket text order is official and binding.

If you need additional information, you may refer to the policy manual, which is posted on the district's website at <http://www.nced.uscourts.gov/pdfs/cmecfPolicyManual.pdf>. You may also review the policy manual on file at the Clerk's Office.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Christa N. Baker". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line underneath the name.

Christa N. Baker, Deputy Clerk
